If you are involved in teaching history or social studies or any other area in the humanities, and you love the experience of meeting other interesting people from various backgrounds, please join us on any number of the Saturday workshops listed. Effigy Mounds National Monument, Humanities Iowa and a variety of partners in Iowa and Wisconsin have teamed up to present, Mounds along the "Messipi" River: Three Thousand Years of Cultures in the Upper Mississippi River Valley. This FREE workshop will include visiting some of the most impressive and well preserved ceremonial archaeological sites remaining in the upper Midwest. You will gain an American Indian perspective on the spiritual nature of the landscape, and will hear from a renowned local archaeologist and several subject matter experts on what is known and has been learned over the past 100 years of research. Workshops are FREE to teachers and a spouse or guest.

WHAT IS INCLUDED IN THE SATURDAY WORKSHOPS

- ✦ Lunch and snacks provided
- ✦ Free admission at Effigy Mounds & other sites
- ✦ Transportation within the monument
- ✦ All programs as detailed in the itinerary
- ✦ Free books & other teacher support materials
